Defendant.)

This matter is before the court on the motion to continue by defendant Abraham Amador-Mendoza (Amador-Mendoza) (Filing No. 25). Amador-Mendoza seeks a continuance of the trial scheduled for December 15, 2014. Amador-Mendoza has submitted an affidavit in accordance with paragraph 9 of the progression order whereby Amador-Mendoza consents to the motion and acknowledges he understands the additional time may be excludable time for the purposes of the Speedy Trial Act (Filing No. 26). Amador-Mendoza's counsel represents that government's counsel has no objection to the motion. Upon consideration, the motion will be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. Amador-Mendoza's motion to continue trial (Filing No. 25) is granted.
2. Trial of this matter is re-scheduled for January 12, 2015, before Senior Judge Joseph F. Bataillon and a jury. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between December 11, 2014, and January 12, 2015, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason that defendant's counsel requires additional time to adequately prepare the case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B).

DATED this 11th day of December, 2014.
